

Programme

Objective: Sharing experiences, assessing our work and discussing impacts and commitments for the future for gender-responsive value chains.

Participation via Skype for Business: → An Skype-Besprechung teilnehmen

13.30 – 14 :00	Snacks & Drinks
14:00 14:30	Welcome by Organisers & Welcome Addresses	Dr. Hans Preuss, GIZ Management Board Dr. Stefan Schmitz, BMZ Unterabteilungsleiter 12 Angela Langenkamp, GIZ Gender Focal Point:
14:30 -14:40	Introduction to the topic: our Work on Women in Value Chains	Joachim Göske (Gender Focal Point GIZ GloBe)
14:40 – 15:00	Launch of the Gender Guide to Value Chains	GIAE & Fair & Sustainable Consultancy Green Innovation Centres
15:00 – 15:15	Inputs from GIAE and other Programmes	Project / Target Group Statements: Kenya, Ghana, India, ACI
15:15 – 15:45	First Round of Discussion / Panel of Experts & Audience: Where are we, what works, what doesn't – Lessons Learned, Impacts and Commitments
15:45 – 16:00	Coffee / Tea Break
16:00 – 16:25	International Experiences I: Contribution from the CGIAR Collaborative Platform for Gender Research	Rhiannon Pyburn IFPRI / KIT, Amsterdam
16:25 -16:45	International Experiences II: Women in Value Chains: 'Reach, Benefit, Empower'	Ruth Meinzen-Dick / Hazel Malapit / Agnes Quisumbing? (IFPRI; via Video Conferencing or SfB)
	or alternatively:	OECD-SWAC on Women in West African Food Markets MSU Women in Value Chains in 9 African Countries
16:45 – 17:30	Second Round of Discussion: What to learn from international experiences? How does GIZ compare to other implementing agencies, what to intensify in future? What are the next big topics to think about for Women in Agricultural Value Chains (--> Insert also the discussion on Jobs for Women in VCs)
17:30 – 18:30	Reception	