

Join the Gender Network!

What is it?

The Global Campus Gender Network is a free, interactive and user-friendly web based forum. It aims to strengthen our gender competence by sharing knowledge, knowhow and experience. It provides a platform for peer learning and advice as well as information sharing. It keeps you updated on new developments, capacity development opportunities and serves as a virtual meeting space for all those eager to present their work. Make use of this opportunity and engage in lively discussions. Join us and register today!

Where can I join?

Please register in our community using the respective link below:

- GIZ, CIM and EH staff, please register here
- External partners, please register here

After the registration please log in in the community by using this link

- www.giz.de/gc21/gender-network

Why join?

It allows us:

- to engage in and benefit from lively discussions and webinars with up to 1000 colleagues around the world without having to travel;
- to share best practices and lessons learnt;
- to keep in touch, exchange ideas and experiences and actively work together;
- to seek and provide peer advice amongst e.g. gender focal persons

Use the following features, as well as many more:

- Activity Feed: all members can write short texts, insert videos, or post images if they like. These posts are viewable by the entire community and everyone has the option to comment on them.
- Groups: create working groups within your community to collaborate on selected assignments with specific community members.
- Documents: sharing and working together on a document is central for collaborating. Access the DMS gender mainstreaming folder and benefit from our processed gender knowhow.
- QuickMeeting/webinar: a virtual meeting room that enables dynamic online participant engagement, direct communication and discussions, sharing of presentations and videos.
- Forum: start a new topic in one of the forums.
- Events: post community-related events that may be of interest using the shared calendar.

Let's fill this community with life!
