

Reflections on Queerness in Lebanon and the Arab World – An online information session with Sarah Kaddoura, a Palestinian feminist activist based in Lebanon.

Who is the queer community in Lebanon? Since when has the queer community been organizing and how? What are the different structural and interpersonal challenges faced? What were the milestones reached in terms of change and legal progress? How did the crises in Lebanon affect the community? And what are the synergies with queers organizing in the Arab World?

Join us on Wednesday the 9th of March at 3:30 pm EET for a ninety-minute online session with Sarah Kaddoura.

Facilitation by: Samantha Abou Jaoude, Pamela Zouein and Christina Mueller

Link to the session: Click here to join the meeting

Agenda

3:30 – 3:40 Welcome

3:40 – 4:30 Presentation by Sarah Kaddoura

4:30 – 4:50 Q&A

4:50 – 5:00 Closing Remarks

Join the conversation!