

Dear Colleagues,

We are delighted to invite you to our online Session “Gender Evidence: Mapping the Terrain”.

When: Tuesday, 19th March, 11:00 – 12:00 h CET

Where: Participation via Teams

Organized by: Sectoral Department/Corporate Unit Evaluation

In celebration of Gender Month this March, we aim to explore and share insights into the existing and various sources of evidence on gender results. Our session will guide you through both internal and external access points and databases.

Gender experts from the Sectoral Department’s Competence Centre Rule of Law, Gender, and Security will share their perspectives on gender evidence. And the Corporate Unit Evaluation will take a deep dive into internal evidence, presenting the findings from a recently published cross-sectional evaluation of central project evaluations on gender impacts and the evidence notebook on gender, based on these findings.

We look forward to your participation and an insightful and informative session!

Agenda:

11:00 – Introduction and welcome

11.05 – Presentation on gender evidence

11:30 – Q&A

11:45 – Exchange of experience on using gender evidence

12:00 – End of the session

Your Corporate Unit Evaluation and Sectoral Department (Competence Centre Rule of Law, Gender, and Security, 4C10)